TravAmogh

KARNATAKA / 2 DAYS

Dandeli and Sathodi Weekend

A Kali River rafting day followed by a waterfall outing from Yellapur in the Western Ghats.

DAY 1

Kali River adventure

Operator's meeting time

Meet your rafting guide

Confirm the meeting point and equipment, and listen to the briefing. Karnataka Tourism lists sessions from about 30 minutes to three hours, depending on the operator and route.

Read the TravAmogh story

Afternoon

Keep the rest of the river day flexible

If suitable activities are running, choose a separate guided session such as kayaking. Confirm the next day's transport to Yellapur.

DAY 2

Sathodi Falls from Yellapur

Morning

Check the approach from Yellapur

Arrange transport and confirm road and visitor access before heading into the forest. Allow time to return in daylight.

Read the TravAmogh story

Midday

Visit the waterfall and return

Use the designated visitor area and spend time by the viewpoint if open. Leave a buffer for the return through the ghats.

Before you go

- Check river conditions and book rafting with a licensed operator.
- Stay clear of fast water at Sathodi Falls, especially after rain.

Karnataka Tourism: Dandeli white-water rafting